Show Protocol

This show will be held outdoors regardless of weather. Appropriate clothing and footwear for running is recommended (rain gear, water for your dog and shade cover is advisable)
There will be NO Dog Grooming at Show Site
The judge will decide based on Entry size if/when there will be a lunch break
Dogs must be shown on a loose lead: using a slip type collar or fur saver (chain, leather or fabric) and a 6' ft lead (leash doesn't need to be on the “dead ring”)
NO double handling from outside the ring
Stacking and food baiting is strongly discouraged
Dogs will be moved generously to evaluate movement and condition (change of handler is permitted)
Teeth will be examined for correct alignment and dentition. Structure as well as Character, Temperament, and Physical Condition will be evaluated.
Please be ready when class is called into the ring. The Judge will look at the class as a group then direct the handlers to move the dogs around the ring at a brisk trot one or more times. The must move freely on a loose leash. Any dog, which acts aggressive towards the handler or Judge or exhibits extreme shyness preventing examination, will be excused.
After the Judge physically examines each entry he/she will direct the handler how to move the dog as well as when to return to the end of the line up.
After the last entry is fully examined the Judge will move the entire class around the ring (usually this is the time the physical condition is examined and will require the dog and handler to maintain an extended amount of time at a brisk trotting pace.) If a handler becomes tired they are allowed to “hand off” the dog to a 2nd handler. Please be careful not to impede the dog's movement. If the dog appears to be tired the Judge (at his/her discretion) will motion the entry to the side of the ring. The Judge may arrange placing before reading the evaluations.
All awards will be presented in the ring after evaluations at the end of each class
At the end of the Riesenschnauzer judging Miniature and Standard Schnauzers are eligible for individual evaluation and critiques. There are no awards, but a memento may be given in appreciation of their support.
